Annual Index of UCCLJ Articles

Volume 9, Summer 1976-Spring 1977

[References are to pages.]

Application of UCC Section 2-725 (Statute of Limitations) to Products Liability Cases—Does It Make Sense? Benjamin N. Henszey, 379

Business Credit Reports That Violate the Fair Credit Reporting Act, Clifton E. McCann, 269

Consumer Credit Legislation in the Ninety-Fourth Congress—And a Look Ahead, Ralph J. Rohner, 307

The Erosion of the Holder in Due Course Doctrine: Historical Perspective and Development—Part I, Leona M. Hudak and Robert Carter, 165

The Erosion of the Holder in Due Course Doctrine: Historical Perspective and Development—Part II, Leona M. Hudak and Robert Carter, 235

Helping the Market to Work: Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act and "Holder in Due Course," David H. Williams, 137

Imperfect Perfection of Security Interests: Good-Faith Filing and Good-Faith Possession, Harold A. Justman, 45

Indemnifying Suppliers Against Their Own Wrongs—Risk Allocation of Products Liability, D.E. Murray, 203

New FTC Rule: Preservation of Claims and Defenses in Consumer Credit Transactions—Uniform Protection Comes to the Scene, J. Wesley Merritt, 65

Reclamation From an Insolvent Vendee—Mission Impossible? Brian N. Siegal, 27

RESPA II: The Shape of Things to Come, James B. Mitchell, 80

A Second Look at the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, Milton W. Schober, 15

Standby Letters of Credit—Issuers' Subrogation and Assignment Rights —Part I, Peter R. Jarvis, 356

Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits, 1974 Revision: The Principal Emendations of the 1962 Text, Elijah E. Jhirad, 109

Annual Author Index

[References are to pages.]

Henszey, Benjamin N., Application of UCC Section 2-725 (Statute of Limitations) to Products Liability Cases—Does It Make Sense? 379.

Hudak, Leona M., and Carter, Robert, The Erosion of the Holder in Due Course Doctrine: Historical Perspective and Development—Part I, 165.

Hudak, Leona M., and Carter, Robert, The Erosion of the Holder in Due Course Doctrine: Historical Perspective and Development—Part II, 235.

Jarvis, Peter R., Standby Letters of Credit—Issuers' Subrogation and Assignment Rights—Part I, 356.

Jhirad, Elijah E., Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits, 1974 Revision: The Principal Emendations of the 1962 Text, 109.

Justman, Harold A., Imperfect Perfections of Security Interests: Good-Faith Filing and Good-Faith Possession, 45.

McCann, Clifton E., Business Credit Reports That Violate the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 269.

Merritt, Wesley J., New FTC Rule: Preservation of Claims and Defenses in Consumer Credit Transactions—Uniform Protection Comes to the Scene, 65.

Mitchell, James B., RESPA II: The Shape of Things to Come, 80.

Murray, D.E., Indemnifying Suppliers Against Their Own Wrongs—Risk Allocation of Products Liability, 203.

Rohner, Ralph J., Consumer Credit Legislation in the Ninety-Fourth Congress—And a Look Ahead, 307.

Schober, Milton W., A Second Look at the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, 15.

Siegal, Brian N., Reclamation From an Insolvent Vendee—Mission Impossible? 27.

Williams, David H., Helping the Market to Work: Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act and "Holder in Due Course," 137.